TOOK VOWS BETWEEN DANCES

California Couple, Attending Ball, Left It to Get Married, and Returned to Merry Party.

Outwitting their friends, Ximena McGlashan, known as the "Butterfly Farmerette" throughout the country because of her collection of butterflies, and Jack Howard, son of Cary Howard, a widely known Oakland attorney, stole out from a dance at night, were married, returned, and went on dancing without telling their secret to anyone at the dance.

They already had a marriage license, so when a motor car drew up in front of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity house in Oakland during the dance, they had only to steal out, speed to the home of the bride's sister, Miss Bliss McGlashan, kidnap her and a friend, Miss Viola McGovern, speed on again to the home of Rev. R. C. Brooks, and be married.

Both families knew of the engagement, but no one was in the secret of the wedding except the bride's sister, Mrs. Jackson Gregory, wife of a magazine writer, to whose home the elopers went after the dance.

The bride, a Stanford graduate, has made butterfly collections for commercial use since childhood, and is said to have one of the most complete private collections in the country. She has written extensively on the subject. — Sacramento (Cal.) Bee.

SCOFFS AT "MACHINE" IDEAL

Eminent Man Makes Plea for Individualism as Preferable to Unionism and Co-operation.

Dr. Percival Lowell, the astronomer, who lectured here recently, expressed the same scant respect for the "machine" ideal of modern civilization as was expressed from the same platform a few weeks before by Rabindranath Tagore, the Bengali poet and philosopher.

"Everywhere on earth co-operation is the order of the day; unionism is in the air," said Doctor Lowell. "Now, unions are excellent in their way for routine work. But though they push the lower men up they pull the upper down."

"And except for routine work what an unfortunate confession of individual incapability they make. To be willing to co-operate is to admit that one can do better in conjunction with others than he can do alone. No great man ever co-operated with another in the idea that made him great."

"That the banding together should be held advisable is a sad comment on the paucity in genius of the age. Wolves hunt in packs, the lion stalks alone." — Portland Oregonian.

LINEN DUCK LEATHER.

Artificial leather from linen duck is one of numerous British products recently announced. The cloth is coated with varnish mixed with a little sicative and Venetian red, and several thicknesses are joined with an adhesive mixture of wood-tar pitch, rubber dissolved in benzol, Venetian red and cork powder. The sheets are compressed between powerful rollers. The material is especially adapted for soles of shoes, but can replace leather for many other purposes.

MIXED VOCABULARY.

"The hyphens have certainly caused a great deal of trouble this year."

"Indeed they are; we are always sending to the plumber to keep ours from leaking."

PROBABLY IN THE DARK AGES.

"How many years ago did he live?"

"Who?"

"The man who said that two could live as cheaply as one?" — Detroit Free Press.

MAKING SOMETHING.

"How's business, old man? Been making anything lately?"

"Yes; an assignment." — Boston Evening Transcript.

POOR PERFORMANCE.

Miss Sweet—She has a good ear for music.

"Maybe so, but she doesn't sing with her ear."

SHE DIDN'T UNDERSTAND.

"A Galahad—" he began.

"Cut it out," interposed the young lady. "It's bad form to talk about a gal you love."

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Hopkinsville People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbar, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease often follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in this locality.

J.W. Francis, Allegrree, Ky., says: "For sixteen or eighteen years kidney trouble clung to me. My back was lame in the morning, I felt languid and was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. Every cold I caught settled in my kidneys and at such times I had to get up at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me in a short time. I am now feeling much better in every way."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Francis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Pros., Buffalo, N. Y.

SUPERFLUOUS MANUFACTURE.

"Nobody desires to make war," remarked one business man.

"No," replied the other. "The world is already overstocked with the ready-made article."

IMPOSSIBLE.

"The man you speak of couldn't do the square thing."

"Why not?"

"Because he's a rounder."

AFFLUENCE.

"They are rich, you say?"

"Unquestionably. Three chauffeurs are included in their servant problems."

THE SUPERIOR SEX.

He—A miss is as good as a mile.
She—But it takes a lot of men to make a league.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise, apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil—the household remedy. Two sizes 25c and 50c at all drug stores. Advertisent

Arrived, Anyway.

We were all out to a summer cottage for a day's outing. The house stood on a hill with the front porch high up from the ground. We would all step off at one corner, and even there found it quite high. Little sonnie followed us, stepping off at the same corner, but fell, and rolled over on the ground. He got up immediately, without crying, although his face was covered with dirt, and said: "That's a funny step, but we got down anyway." — Chicago Tribune.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Thought Him the Stork's Agent.

Carol, aged three, while at her grandfather's store, was very much interested to a traveling salesman and a small case he carried. Looking up at him intently she said: "Is you a doctor?" She kept very quiet when he said "No," until he picked up his case to go, then she said with much excitement, "Does you sell babies?"

Defiant Idiom.

"It's me," is an idiom, says a Harvard professor, and is allowable. It is allowable largely for the reason that we haven't standing army enough to suppress it. — Houston Post.

Novel Water Heater.

One of the numerous new electric heaters has the form of a nickel tube seven inches long, with the usual cord and plug connecting to a lamp socket. The resistance coil in the tube becomes intensely hot very quickly, and it is claimed that shaving water in which the tube is immersed will be heated in less than a minute. In a little longer time small quantities of water or other liquids can be raised to boiling.

At the Party.

A girl sang a song in French and nobody could understand a word of it. Then another girl sang a song in English and nobody could understand a word of that either. — Kansas City Journal.

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armor clashing just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations, graphically tell the own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an ineffable impression.
